Mr. Zeiger:

Good afternoon, everyone. Chairman Fujita is unavailable today and I've been asked to step in and lead today's Board session. At this time, I would like to convene the meeting of the Board of Trustees. Would the Secretary please note the attendance?

Ms. Eveland:

A quorum is present.

Dr. Zeiger:

Thank you. I will now move that the Board recess into executive session to consider business-sensitive trade secrets required to be kept confidential by federal and state statutes, and to discuss personnel matters regarding the appointment, employment and compensation of public employees.

Upon the motion of Mr. Zeiger, seconded by Mr. Mitevski, the Board of Trustees adopted the foregoing motion by unanimous roll call vote, cast by trustees: Mr. Stockmeister, Mr. Zeiger, Mr. Heminger, Mr. Kaplan, Mrs. Harsh, Dr. Wilkinson, Mr. Kiggin, Mr. Mitevski, Mr. Bigby, Mr. Perez, Mr. Kastan, Mr. Skestos, and Ms. Schwein.

FULL-BOARD PUBLIC SESSION

Vice Chair John Zeiger reconvened The Ohio State University Board of Trustees on Friday, July 14, 2023, at 4:32 p.m.

Mr. Zeiger:

Reminder to everyone that this meeting is being recorded and livestreamed for the public on WOSU. So that we are able to conduct the business of this meeting in an orderly fashion, I would ask that any sound on cell phones and other devices be turned off, and I would ask that all members of the audience observe appropriate rules of decorum proper to conducting the business at hand.

The critical issue for today's meeting is the consideration of a recommendation from the Finance & Investment Committee and our chief financial officer for a tuition adjustment. At this point I would ask Mike Papadakis and Kris Devine to make a presentation explaining the proposed change and the reason it is required.

Mr. Papadakis:

So anytime we have a conversation on this topic we always want to start it with a level set to make sure we are thinking about student access and affordability. Currently, we operate under the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee Program. It is a program that has been in place since FY2018, so this is the sixth class of students who will be part of that program. It is important to note that residents of the state of Ohio are part of this program, we are not only locking in tuition fees we are also locking in room and board for up to four years.

We think the total cost of attendance and affordability at Ohio State is important, so we lock in all those fees for our students for four years. Another part of what we think about when we think about affordability is making sure we are handing out significant amounts of student financial aid. As you can see on slide 2, we have highlighted several different programs. I will give a few highlights. When you think of total student financial aid for next year, we are forecasting our Ohio State students will receive $450M; with $364M of that financial aid comes from Ohio State, the rest of those dollars come from various federal and state programs. Again, $364M in aid from us to our students for next year.

Some of the programs listed are parts of our larger programs aimed at affordability. Again, I will just give some highlights. The Buckeye Opportunity Program, which is a program we launched in 2018, it basically provides full tuition fees for Ohio Pell-eligible students. We rolled that program out in 2018 in Columbus and in 2019 at our regional campuses. We also have available the President's Affordability Grant Program, which roughly impacts 13,000 students every year and gives students grants from $500-$1,500 each to hopefully help offset some of their costs.

The Land-Grant Opportunity Scholarship program has doubled in size allowing us to provide two full-ride scholarships to every incoming class for every county in the state of Ohio. Every county, every year, gets two full-ride scholarships to Ohio State University.

We also want to thank our state legislature for passing a very significant increase in the Ohio College Opportunity Grant (OCOG). The increase is roughly $500 per student going into the next biennium.

The last program to highlight is the Scarlet & Gray program which launched last fall. We had 125 students in that program, and we expect 125-150 students in that program again this fall. Thinking about ways we can give our students opportunities or pathways to hopefully graduate from Ohio State debt free.

On the next slide, slide 3, I want to highlight a couple thoughts on why we are having a conversation about tuition increases today. As you think about the operations of the university and how we fund the overall academic mission it is important to not just think about today but how we got here. If you think about the last decade, we had roughly five years where we froze tuition. Also, during that time period, we entered the sixth year of our Ohio State Tuition Guarantee program, which is a program where we increase rates up front then lock them in for four years.

The other pieces to highlight are total State Share of Instruction (SSI) has certainly not kept pace with inflation over the last 20 years. As you can see on the chart at the bottom of the page, thinking about where we've received our funding from you can see that transition in the past decades where we were mainly state funded to now where the vast majority is coming from tuition and fees.

Last but not least, the operating environment we've encountered in the last couple years has experienced lots of impact from inflation, commodity costs, labor costs, student wages, full-time wages, natural gas, food prices etc. Ohio State has been impacted by all those things; highlighted on the page for you are some thoughts around what those rates have been over the past couple of years.

As we think about the proposal today while viewing slide 4, I am going to begin on the left side of the page and work my way through the undergraduate proposals first, then graduate student proposals on the right and go in more depth on these as well.

First, a number of fees are not going up at all for returning in-state students who are already part of the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee program. Also, our international surcharge and our non-resident online programs have a 0% increase for next year.

Next, in the box to the bottom left, for our in-state students we are asking for a 3% increase. This is a 3% one-time increase locked in for four years. Again, it is a one-time increase.

The non-resident surcharge request is for a 5.2% increase, or roughly $1,269; housing and dining are both looking for a 3% increase, then student health insurance is given in a range; this is a pass-through cost negotiation with an outside party then the cost is passed through to our students.

Mr. Mitevski:

Mike, can we have an idea what the size of the incoming class will be this year and perhaps the composition of it – resident vs. non-resident?

Mr. Papadakis:

Great question. We think our incoming class will be somewhere between 8,100-8,200 students. We will be somewhere in the ballpark of 33-35% out of state, so 65-67% in state.

On the right side of the page on slide 4, just a couple quick thoughts on graduate programs then I will hand it over to Kris to go into more in depth. We are proposing a 3.8% increase for both in-person and online programs for residents and a 4.2% increase for non-residents.

In the box below, still on slide 4, we have several different master's programs, we are asking for a rate increase for some of the new programs and for some of our existing programs. All those rate increases are market based. We do a lot of work so our programs are cost competitive around the county with the other programs and make sure they are a good value for our students as well.

Any questions at this point?

Mr. Zeiger:

Mike, thank you. I know that there are literally a thousand details in the work you, Kris and your team have done, and I also want to emphasize for the public that the entire package of these slides which show all those details on the various different programs and fees are available so perhaps we can keep the detailed discussion at a relatively truncated presentation. However, I do think it is important that Kris help people understand how it is these proposals come forward and process by which the university itself and the academic side of the house is involved.

Ms. Devine:

Sure, I will talk about that as I go through the slides, so we ensure everybody understands.

I'll start with the undergraduate section — undergraduate tuition and fees for FY24 on slide 6. As Mike noted, tuition is built on base tuition for Ohio students, this is the tuition guarantee for four years. Incoming students will pay the 3% increase, but that amount is then locked for a four-year period. We are proposing an increase in instructional fees by 2.6%, and 0.4% increase to base tuition to provide funding specific for student wellness and mental health efforts. This 3% aggregate increase is within the state guidelines. Domestic non-resident students will pay the base tuition plus the non-resident surcharge. The non-resident fees for both domestic U.S. residents outside of Ohio and international students is set based on market pricing and peer comparison reviews. How we compare to our peers in this context I will talk about on the next slide. The only other thing I want to mention on this slide is program course and technology fees have a 0% increase for undergraduate students this year. Back in spring of 2019 we eliminated about 70% of our course fees in the interest of student affordability.

Slide 7 is our way of trying to really understand and show where we land compared to peers as well as where we land compared to Ohio schools. With the tuition increase proposed, Ohio State will remain the second most affordable university for resident undergrads amongst selective admission public universities in the state and more affordable than nine of the 15 Big Ten schools or seventh most affordable for resident students. The specifics by schools are outlined in the appendix on slide 25 if you're interested in that information.

I also want to note we are increasing and investing .4% of the increase in the office of student life, student wellness and mental health education and prevention efforts to allow us to continue our strategic activities to ensure our students can continue to be successful inside and outside of the classroom.

The graph on the bottom left-hand side of slide 7 lays out by component what type of fees are embedded in the undergraduate mandatory fees and tuition. You will see where we land at the first subtotal for residents at 3%, you will also see the recreation fee in there added at a 2.8% increase, and it should be noted the international surcharge — international students pay base, plus domestic non-resident, plus international surcharges. We are not increasing the international surcharge. Their total fee will still go up consistent with domestic non-resident but when we look again at our market comparison, we are 11th in the Big Ten for most affordable, which means we are getting higher in the price point compared to where we want to be over time to ensure we are staying competitive.

I guess the only other thing I want to mention, even with all our components it is interesting to note this year we had 70,000 completed applications for Ohio State, last year we have 65,200. So, our brand remains strong and the demand for the service remains strong which is excellent news for Ohio State.

I am going to flip to graduate tuition. On slide 9, we are proposing a 3.8% increase in base tuition and a 4.2% increase in non-resident tuition for graduate tuition and fees. The rates are valued against Big Ten peers. Master's and PhD students will pay these rates unless they have differentials. On slide 10 we will talk about how we compare at those rates in comparison to our peers. And again, we added at the bottom what the fee components are for graduate students. You will see graduate programs for tuition mandatory fees will increase about $500 for Ohio and $1,629 for non-resident students. Those base rates were not increased from 2014-2022, therefore, we had a bigger gap between our price point than our peers than what we wanted to be comfortable with. These rates will put Ohio State at the seventh most affordable of 15 schools in the Big Ten for residents and 11th in the Big Ten for non-residents. Again, comparison for specific schools both within the Big Ten and comparison to Ohio can be found on slides 34 and 35 of the deck provided.

Jumping to tag master's and professional tuition and fees on slide 12. The process on how these prices are determined are each graduate and professional college program looks at their tuition compared to market pricing and demand. We have an internal process that is very judicious to review fees that each college will bring forward to Senate Fiscal Committee to review. Senate Fiscal is a subcommittee of our Faculty Senate, and that subcommittee is comprised of deans, administrators, students and faculty. This subcommittee reviews each proposal for market pricing demand, cost structure and necessity of the fee increase and will gather student input for any existing programs. Once satisfied with the answers and the information provided then the committee will recommend approval or no approval to the provost and the chief financial officer depending on the data they gathered. The chart on slide 12 provides an overview of the fee proposal increases for graduate and professional fees for FY2024.

On the next slide (slide 13) there is a lot of data here as you can see. This shows differential fees for each program as outlined. There are three new programs we are bringing forward this year: two in cybersecurity and one in Doctor of Nursing Education. The details specific to those fees, how they were justified, demand for the program, etc. are outlined on slides 37 and 38 of the deck. These fees are all based on market assessments at the colleges and can increase or decrease depending on demand and market changes. You will note the supply change demand differentials are proposing to change as a decrease in order to align with market rate. I think it is important to know it can go either way depending on that assessment. I think that is a good validation that the process is judicious.

Next slide (slide 14) covers program course fees for graduate programs, new program course fees are shown on this slide. I am not going to go through them as the specifics are available for you review on slides 39 and 42. These slides are intended to provide the background on what the process was, the justification for the need for the change and the fee request.

Jumping to housing and dining on slide 16. Housing and Dining is a tuition guarantee program for Ohio State. Generally, students will live in on-campus housing for two years. We have given you some background on what rate increases have been historically. The need for rate of increases depends on increases in support for operations and repair and maintenance. We try to ensure we are keeping up to speed on repairs and maintenance and deferred maintenance in the housing and dining areas. Off-campus benchmarking indicate rates are going up 3-5% in the marketplace. Dining specifically, I will call out food increases due to inflation have been very significant as well as our labor market. It is really challenging to get students to work in the dining hall which is a big component of our workforce, the labor and demand and labor price is increasing. The proposal will outline we have a 3% proposed increase to cover operations and repairs and maintenance for housing and dining. The rates vary depending on which plan you choose either both in housing or dining. We are mindful where we are with the price point in this particular demographic. We could have an increase based on state biennium regulations up to three-year average CPI which equates to 4.6% but we are only going to increase at 3.3% this year.

The last slide, slide 19, is on student health insurance. We are proposing an increase of 1.73 – 1.76%. This is a 100% pass-through charge based on a third party vendor. We require all students at OSU to have health insurance. Eighty—seven per-cent of the students have health insurance from someone else, predominantly from parent plans. International students are required to be enrolled in the Ohio State Health Plan to ensure they have health insurance. Here again the rate increase is what is negotiated with our third party vendor who provides the service.

After this, you have many slides for your reading pleasure if you so choose to.

(See Appendix I for background information, page 13)

CONSENT AGENDA

Mr. Zeiger:

Mike and Kris, thank you for all the effort that you and your team have put into developing these proposals and justifying them to us. We appreciate it. Are there any questions from the members of the board regarding the proposals I know we have all received the written documents, I am confident we have all reviewed them with care. I am particularly appreciative of the finance committee under Tom Mitevski's leadership.

They have engaged significantly on reviewing this with a lot of hours going into that. But are there any final questions from the Trustees regarding these proposals? Including all of those who are on Zoom with us.

Hearing none, at this point we do have four proposals on our consent agenda, resolutions, which basically incorporate and finalize the detail Mike and Kris have shared with us today and have all been provided to the Board previously and been reviewed along with the underlining documentation as well. There are four different consent agenda items set forth both in the materials the Trustees have and available to the public.

At this point I would ask Mr. Mitevski, as Chair of the finance committee share a few thoughts about the process and at the appropriate point make a motion.

Mr. Mitevski:

Thank you, John. I would just add that our Finance and Investment Committee has been working with Kris and Mike and the team for several, several months to look at all these presented increases to make sure they are affordable and competitive, and to also assess the landscape. I mean inflation has been increasing over 7% for the last couple years. We want to make sure this is affordable and competitive and while at the same time allowing us to invest and reinvest. I would like to make a motion to approve as presented.

Mr. Zeiger:

Any further discussion?

Hearing none, I'll ask the Secretary to call the role to approve all four of the consent agenda proposals or resolutions which will incorporate and put into effect the information Mike and Kris have laid out regarding tuition and fees including dining and housing.

Background: Affordability at Ohio State

Controlling Tuition

- Since FY18, incoming in-state students benefit from the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee
 - Provides predictability for each entering cohort by locking resident tuition rates, room and board charges for four years

Expanding Institutional and State Aid

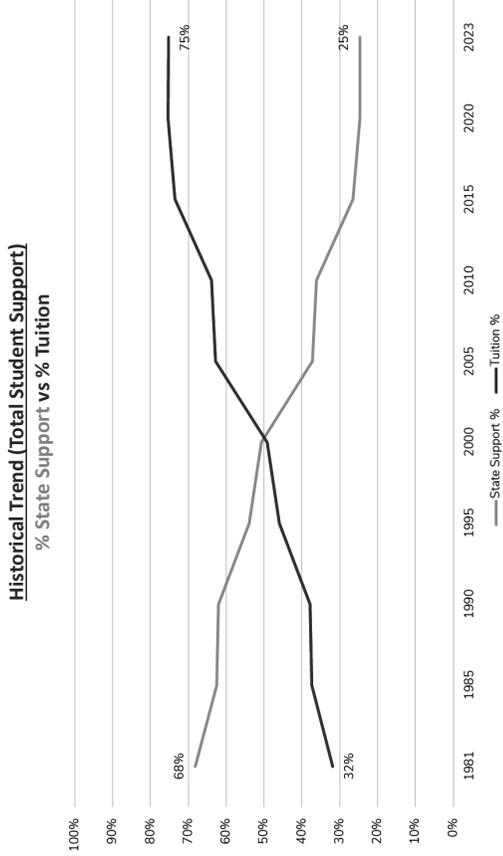

- Millions in additional need-based financial aid have supported students since FY15, with $53.9M in the FY23 Financial Plan
 - Buckeye Opportunity Program covers tuition and fees for Ohio Pell-eligible students
 - More than 12,900 President's Affordability Grants for low- and middle-income Ohioans in FY22
 - Land Grant Opportunity Scholarships doubled, starting in Autumn 2018
 - In FY24, the Ohio College Opportunity Grant program was increased by $500 per student (maximum grant award of $3,200) based on the FY24-25 State of Ohio biennium budget

Scarlet & Gray Advantage Program

- In Autumn 2022, the university welcomed its first cohort of New First Year Students (NFYS) to pilot Scarlet & Gray Advantage
- The program will include financial aid, work opportunities, career development and financial literacy components

What impacts the need for tuition increase?

- Resident tuition frozen from FY 2013 – FY 2017
- FY18 Tuition Guarantee implemented, resident tuition increases are only applied to the incoming cohort
- Total Columbus campus State Share of Instruction (SSI) increases have not kept pace with inflation
- Inflationary cost pressures will impact commodities and labor expenses (Annual Inflation 2022: 7.9%; 36-Month: 4.6%)

- Per a market survey report conducted in October 2020, cybersecurity professionals are employed in almost all medium-to-large scale corporations, federal and local governmental entities, and the military
 - Employers demonstrate robust demand for master’s-level cyber security studies professionals

Nursing: Doctor of Nursing Education – New Program

- The College of Nursing is requesting a new differential instructional fee of $7,780 per semester for the Doctor of Nursing Education (DNE) program
 - The College wants to align the tuition and fees of the DNE program with their current Doctor of Nursing Practice Program
 - Aligned with the DNP program, the students in the DNE program will also be charged a program fee of $1,249.60 per semester and a technology fee of $199.80 per semester
- The DNE program is designed for nurses who are passionate about teaching nursing students and nurses in all settings, including a cumulative capstone project demonstrating achievement of doctoral-level outcomes
- The College of Nursing at The Ohio State University is the first in the country to offer this degree
- Additionally, we have already seen over 50 applicants to the program
- The estimated salary of the graduates from this program is $120,000- $150,000

Business: MBOE Gemba Fee

- Master of Business Operational Excellence students are required to pay a Session 7 Gemba fee to take a required trip outside of Ohio as part of the experiential learning in MBOE
- The total cost of the trip is between $2,500 - $3,500 (dependent upon location) and is paid by each student at the end of August for the session that takes place in September/October
- The Fisher College of Business wants to implement a program fee of $1,000 per semester (three semester program) to include the total cost of the trip into the cost of the program
 - Incorporating this fee into the total tuition cost benefits the students by allowing them to receive financial aid and/or company support for the cost of the required trip
 - Additionally, it allows them to split the total cost of the trip into three $1,000 payments
- Any revenue generated, due to changes in costs over the year would be used to enhance the Gemba trip

Dentistry: Digital and Dental Materials Fee

- The College of Dentistry requests a new clinic fee of $2,000 per year (assessed annually in Autumn semester, only) for students in the Advanced Prosthodontics residency program
- With the increased use of 3D printing and subtractive manufacturing of dental prostheses, the associated cost for materials and maintenance continues to rise
- The College would like to phase this in over the next 3 years by charging new incoming classes, but not our currently enrolled residents
- Advanced Prosthodontics program receives over 90 applications per cycle for 3 spots
- The tuition structure and stipend provided to the residents makes this an attractive program for all applicants, both in-state and out-of-state
 - The program's total tuition is 73% below the mean and it ranks 29 out of 36 programs
 - The Ohio State University is one of only 19 programs that pay stipends to residents and the stipend ranks 9th highest

Medicine: 3D Printing Supplies Fee

- The College of Medicine requests a new course fee of $100 per semester for students in the Anatomy 6100 course (Introduction to 3D Printing for Health Science Students)
- This fee will be assessed to graduate students in the Colleges of Medicine and Dentistry, and the School of Rehabilitation Sciences.
- Each student participating in the elective is required to print at least three different items throughout the semester
- The requested fee will cover the increase in cost of materials (resin) used for 3D printing as well as maintenance of the 3D printers used in the course
- With a maximum of 20 students per semester enrolling in the course, this would equate to $2,000 in fee revenues per semester
- We are the only Ohio public institution offering a 3D printing Anatomy elective for health science students

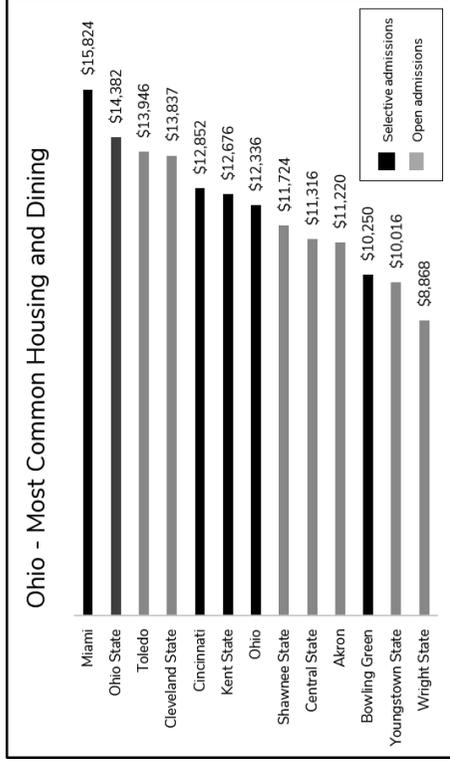

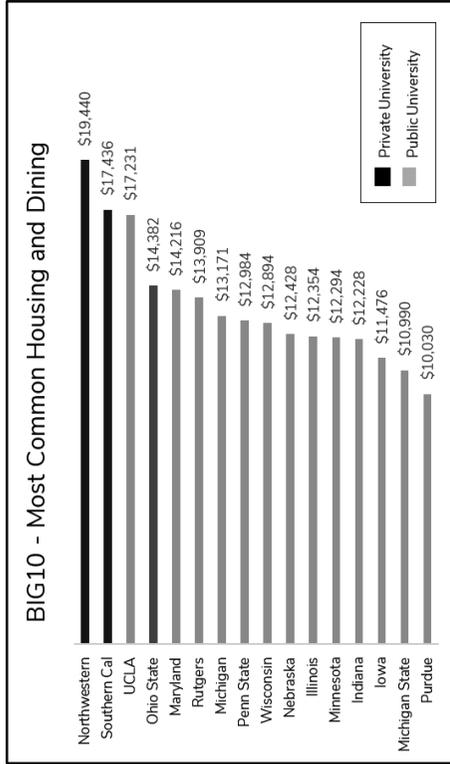

Nursing: Anesthesia Specialty Track fee

- The College of Nursing is requesting a program fee of $5,000 per semester for Doctor of Nursing Practice students in their new Anesthesia Specialty Track
- The program fee will be used to support specialty faculty instruction, maintain high-quality programming, and keep pace with our infrastructure support costs
- The program fee will also support the ability to initiate and maintain the accreditation process which is unique to this specialty through the Council of Anesthesia (COA)
- There has been a large increase in the demand for nurses with this specialty in the state of Ohio over the last 5 years
- 2021 U.S. News & World Report rankings (National):
 - Master of Science in Nursing program – 1st
 - Doctor of Nursing Practice program – 11th
 - Online Bachelor’s programs – 7th

APPENDIX II

BACKGROUND

Topic:

2023-2024 Academic Year Tuition & Mandatory Fees

Context:

The Board of Trustees sets rates for tuition and mandatory fees for each academic year. The adopted rates will be reflected in the Fiscal Year 2024 budget.

This summary first lays out the total cost of tuition and mandatory fees for each type of undergraduate student to reflect the university's focus on overall affordability. With the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee, the tuition and fee rates set for each incoming cohort of new first-year undergraduates are frozen for the entirety of a four-year education. State law requires the board to set rates for individual fees contained within these totals. Those line items are listed below.

I. Considerations in Setting Tuition and Fees

The university considers many factors in developing the proposed 2023-2024 Academic Year tuition and mandatory fee recommendations. These include:

- A. Our commitment to access, affordability, and excellence, including:
 - Pathways for students to attend Ohio State (all campuses)
 - Controlling costs and providing financial aid to support students
 - Clarity and predictability for incoming Ohio resident students and their families through the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee, which sets base tuition and fees (as well as housing and dining rates) for four years
 - Investments in academic quality
- B. Financial factors we consider
 - State funding and regulatory requirements
 - i. State Share of Instruction
 - ii. Flexibility on resident tuition and fees for continuing students
 - iii. Tuition rates in Ohio State Tuition Guarantee for the 2023-24 cohort of new first-year students only
 - Peer comparisons/competition for students and faculty (See Section II-Part C for a comparison of tuition and mandatory fees among main campuses of Ohio universities.)
 - Inflationary pressures on the university's budget

II. Tuition

A. Recommended tuition and mandatory fees effective Autumn semester 2023 (Fiscal Year 2024) - Columbus

 - a. Students who are part of the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee (2020-21, 2021-22, 2022-23 and 2023-24). The program provides each incoming cohort of first-year Ohio resident students with a four-year freeze on tuition and mandatory fees (along with housing and dining rates).
 - b. Students in the Tuition Guarantee cohort that began in Autumn of 2019 (Fiscal Year 2020), will move to the Tuition Guarantee cohort rates established for Fiscal Year 2021.
- B. The Ohio State Tuition Guarantee will continue into its seventh year in Fiscal Year 2024, with a 3.0% increase on resident (base) tuition and mandatory fees compared with the 2022-23 cohort for all campuses. These rates will be frozen for four years.
- C. The undergraduate non-resident surcharge will increase by 5.2% in Fiscal Year 2024. The State of Ohio requires a non-resident surcharge.
- D. Graduate (Master's and Ph.D.) Program resident (base) tuition and mandatory fees will increase by 3.8% in Fiscal Year 2024. The graduate non-resident surcharge will increase by 4.2% for most graduate programs.

APPENDIX III

BACKGROUND

Topic:

2023-2024 Academic Year User Fees & Charges

Context:

Beyond tuition and mandatory fees, the university charges other fees for specific purposes, including student housing, dining, and health insurance, as well as to support graduate and professional programs.

Differential fees for graduate and professional programs are market-based and reflect the need to continually invest in the academic excellence of Ohio State programs. Proposals for Academic Year 2023-2024 include new or changed differential fees for eleven programs, two new program fees, one new course fee, and clinical fees for three programs.

Housing and dining fees support those operations, including the associated debt service and maintenance costs. The proposed 3.0% increases for housing and dining would apply to new first-year students in the 2023-24 Tuition Guarantee cohort and to continuing students who enrolled prior to 2017-18 when the guarantee program was established. The proposed rates would be frozen for four years for students in the 2023-24 Tuition Guarantee cohort.

Ohio State requires students to carry health insurance, but students are not required to use the university's health plans if they have other applicable coverage. The proposed 1.73% to 1.76% increase reflects the cost charged by a third-party vendor. The university uses the fee to cover the costs of the third-party provider.

Summary:

- Approval of differential, clinical and pass-through fees for graduate and professional programs
- Approval of housing and dining rates
- Approval of student health insurance rates

I. Differential Fee Requests and Specific Professional School Non-Resident Surcharge, Deposit and Clinical requests

A. Differential Instructional and Non-Resident Surcharge Fees

University policy allows professional programs and Ohio Department of Higher Education-approved tagged master's programs to charge differential instructional fee rates based on market demand and pricing.

Eleven programs across nine colleges are seeking changes or new differential instruction fees:

- Seven Colleges — Business, Dentistry, Law, Medicine, Optometry, Pharmacy, and Veterinary Medicine — have requested changes
- Two Colleges — Engineering and Nursing — have requested new differentials

In addition, two colleges are seeking changes to the non-resident surcharge. These changes would apply instead of the standard increase (4.2%) proposed for Fiscal Year 2024:

- The College of Dentistry is requesting a 4.0% increase for all ranks
- The College of Veterinary Medicine is requesting a 2.0% increase for Rank 1 and no change for Rank 2-4

Differential Fees and Non-Resident Surcharges are shown at the per-semester rate in the chart below.

B. Other fees:

In addition to the differential instructional fees, Business, Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing and Veterinary Medicine have proposed other changes to their fees:

- Business is requesting a new program fee for the Master of Business Operational Excellence Program
- Dentistry is requesting a new clinic fee for the Advanced Prosthodontics Residency Program
- Dentistry is seeking to increase a clinical fee for Ranks 1 – 4
- Medicine is requesting a new course fee for 3D printing supplies
- Nursing is requesting a new program fee for students in the Anesthesia Specialty Track.
- Veterinary Medicine is seeking to increase a clinical fee for Rank 4

Other Fees are shown at the per-semester rate in the chart below.

Below is the market-related information and the basis for each graduate or professional college requesting a change in fees:

Fisher College of Business

- Requests a 28.3% decrease (-$3,791) in differential instructional fee for the Master of Supply Chain Management Program
- Requests a new program fee of $1,000 per semester for the Master of Business Operational Excellence Program

The College of Business requests a decrease in the instructional fee for the Master of Supply Chain Management program. The 28.3% decrease submitted this year is a resubmission from FY23 as they are adjusting fees to accommodate students in both full-time and part-time instruction to keep the fees the same across both timelines for the degree. The addition of the part-time student track for the program allows students who are working full time and/or cannot accommodate full in-person instructional schedules. The current costs for this program are in the middle range compared to Ohio State's peers.

The College of Business also requests a pass-through program fee for the MBOE program. As part of their experiential learning, students are required to pay an out-of-pocket fee to participate in a trip outside of Ohio. The total cost of the trip is between $2,500 - $3,500 (dependent upon location) and is paid by each student at the end of August for the session that takes place in September/October. Students offered positive feedback about the creation of the pass-through fee, as this simplifies the costs for them. Most employers pay their fees upfront and this eliminates the need for the students to request reimbursement for this extra cost of travel.

College of Dentistry

- Requests a 4.0% (Rank 1) / 4.0% (Rank 2 - 4) increase in differential instructional fees
- Requests a 4.0% increase in the non-resident surcharge for Ranks 1 - 4
- Requests a 2.0% increase in clinical fees for all ranks
- Requests a new clinic fee for the Advanced Prosthodontics Residency program of $667 per semester

The College of Dentistry proposes a 4% increase in the instructional fee for class ranks 1 through 4. The increase is needed to provide adequate financial resources to support the increasing costs of educational and patient care programs. This includes faculty and staff compensation and benefits, purchase and/or replacement of instruments, equipment replacement reserves, materials, supplies, and other costs associated with didactic courses and operations of the student clinics. Additionally, the fee revenue is earmarked to hire incremental teaching faculty. According to national survey data, the college's first-year tuition is 25% below the mean and it ranks 44th out of 67 programs in terms of first-year tuition rates.

The College of Dentistry asks for approval of an increase in the clinic fee (2.0% rise) for all class ranks. This increase is to help support the increased/inflationary costs of maintaining services and equipment for the upcoming academic year. This fee increase will allow them to continue to maintain current services and equipment and continue to implement the multi-year digital dentistry plan that includes significant investments in technology.

Dentistry also submitted a request for a new clinic fee to cover the costs for new digital and dental material for the Advanced Prosthodontics Residency Program. With the increased use of 3D printing and subtractive manufacturing of dental prostheses, associated costs for materials and maintenance continue to rise. The college wants to minimize the deficit in the program (average program clinical deficit of $250,000 per year pre-COVID) and maximize the educational and clinical experience of the residents. There are 3 spots in this program open each year, with no other advanced prosthodontics programs existing in the state of Ohio. Other programs nationally charge 2 to 5 times the current proposed clinic fee.

College of Engineering

- Requests a new Cybersecurity Offense and Defense Graduate Certificate program with a differential instructional fee of $9,360 per semester and a non-resident surcharge of $200 per semester
- Requests a new Cybersecurity Studies: Design and Implementation Graduate Certificate program with a differential instructional fee of $9,360 per semester and a non-resident surcharge of $200 per semester

The College of Engineering proposes two new graduate certificate programs, the Cybersecurity Offense and Defense Graduate Certificate and the Cybersecurity Studies: Design and Implementation Graduate Certificate, both with identical fees. The total instructional cost for the two 12-credit-hour certificates will be $14,040. The two proposed certificate programs utilize courses co-taught by Computer Science Engineering and Electrical and Computer Engineering, so they request approval of these two programs jointly. These two certificates will eventually form the core of a Professional Master in Cybersecurity and Digital Trust when pathways for stackable certificates are approved. Per a market survey report conducted in October 2020, cybersecurity professionals are employed in almost all medium-to-large scale corporations, federal and local governmental entities, and the military. Employers demonstrate robust demand for master's-level cyber security studies professionals.

College of Law

- Requests a 2.0% increase in differential instructional fees for Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.)
- Requests a 33.5% decrease in differential instructional fee for the Master in the Study of Law (MSL) – Full Time
- Requests to keep the non-resident surcharge flat, rather than the university's proposed increase of 4.2%

The College of Law proposes a 2% increase in differential instructional fees, which will apply to all enrolled J.D. and LLM. students. The college is not requesting a change in the non-resident fee this year to remain competitive with peer institutions. The program's tuition with the requested increase is comparable to the average tuition of other similarly ranked law schools. The College of Law will use the additional revenue to increase student financial aid and to offset the cost of a planned decrease in class size, as part of a program to remain competitive in the industry. The U.S. News & World Report rankings have Moritz College of Law tied at #22, with tuition and fees at the average of their competitor schools.

The College of Law recently changed portions of the structure of its Master's in the Study of Law (MSL) program to make the program more dynamic, increase accessibility to working professionals, and attract new students. The 33.5% decrease submitted this year is a resubmission from FY23 as they are adjusting fees to accommodate students in both full-time and part-time instruction to keep the fees the same across both timelines for the degree. To meet the needs of the curriculum while also aligning with benchmark universities, the college will be administering the program on both a full-time and a part-time basis and will require fee changes to reflect this. This rate was calculated so that the all-in cost of the program, whether full-time or part-time, is $30,000. The proposed rates will make the program competitive with other benchmark schools, allowing the college to enroll additional students and diversify and increase revenue streams to support and grow the program.

College of Medicine

- Requests a reduction in differential instructional fees of $56 per semester for Ranks 3
- Requests an increase in differential instructional fees of $151 per semester for Ranks 4
- Requests a new course fee of $100 per semester for 3D printing supplies in the Anatomy 6100 course

The College of Medicine is adjusting the rate for Ranks 3 - 4 to standardize the rate for their professional students. This will mean that their students will have a standard rate as they progress through the professional program. Additionally, the College of Medicine proposes a new course fee for 3D Printing supplies ($100). The requested fee covers the purchase of 3D printing materials for the Introduction to 3D Printing for Health Science Students, Anatomy 6100. The materials used for 3D printing (referred to as resin) have a continual cost as students participating in the elective are required to print at least three different items. In addition to the cost of the resin, the funding ensures that the machines are functioning properly and covers additional maintenance costs for the machines. Ohio State is the only Ohio institution offering a 3D printing elective for health science students.

College of Nursing

- Requests a new Doctor of Nursing Education (DNE) program with a differential instructional fee of $7,780 per semester and a non-resident surcharge of $13,865 per semester
- Requests a new program fee of $5,000 per semester for Doctor of Nursing Practice students in the Anesthesia Specialty Track

The College of Nursing proposes an instructional fee for their new Doctor of Nursing Education (DNE) program, which is set to go live in Autumn 2023 after recent BOT approval. This program will be the first of its kind in the country and already has 50 applicants. The proposed DNE program will prepare expert nursing educators dedicated to teaching didactic and clinical skills to prepare the next generation of nurses. The requested fee for this program is set to match the fee the college already charges for its established Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP). Aligned with the DNP program, the students in the DNE program will also be charged a program fee of $1,249.60 per semester and a technology fee of $199.80 per semester.

Nursing also requests a program fee within its Doctor of Nursing Practice program for the creation of a Nurse Anesthesia Specialty Track. The request for the Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) program nurse anesthesia specialty track fee increase will be utilized to support specialty faculty instruction, maintain high-quality programming, keep pace with infrastructure support costs and support accreditation standards. U.S. News & World Report rankings in 2021 placed The Ohio State University College of Nursing's online Master of Science in Nursing program #1 in the country, the DNP program #11 in the country and Ohio State's overall online bachelor's programs #7 in the country. The College of Nursing's online RN to BSN program constitutes more than half of the university's online undergraduates.

College of Optometry

- Requests a 3.0% increase in differential instructional fees for all ranks
- Requests to keep the non-resident surcharge flat, rather than the university's proposed increase of 4.2%

The College of Optometry is requesting a 3.0% increase in instruction for all students enrolled in the Doctor of Optometry (OD) professional program. The college is also requesting to keep the non-resident surcharge flat for this degree program. The net increase in annual continuing funds budget the college will obtain from this proposal will finance projected increases in the fixed costs (such as salaries, benefits, utilities, maintenance, etc.) of providing the professional program. In addition, the college anticipates additional plant operations and maintenance costs beginning in FY24 when phase two of the Interdisciplinary Health Sciences Center is online and Optometry occupies its instructional space programmed in the new building. Next year's incoming class of students will see new lecture rooms, hands-on lab spaces, and student support areas that will soon be available to them. In terms of fee ranking, Ohio State Optometry currently has the fourth lowest four-year total cost of attendance of the 24 schools for non-resident students. Currently, the four-year total tuition for non-resident students is the lowest among the most common, regional competitors at $146,704.

College of Pharmacy

- Requests a 1.0% increase in differential instructional fees for all ranks
- Requests to keep the non-resident surcharge flat, rather than the university's proposed increase of 4.2%

The College of Pharmacy is requesting a 1.0% increase in the instructional fee for all ranks and the college is also requesting to keep the non-resident surcharge flat for this degree program. The differential fee increase is needed to enhance the PharmD program by investing in instruction and professional student services/programming and renovating teaching and learning spaces. A primary driver of this request is to continue funding to meet the increased teaching needs (increase in faculty and associated faculty FTE). The PharmD students directly benefit from this differential fee revenue and the college will use the marginal revenue to continue to recruit and retain faculty. The College of Pharmacy is currently ranked 7th out of 141 other colleges in the most recent U.S. News & World Report, and is the 91st most expensive pharmacy school nationwide, with a tuition rate $22,000 less than the average cost of attendance in the country.

College of Veterinary Medicine

- Requests a 2.0% increase in differential instructional fees
- Requests a 2.0% increase in non-resident surcharge for Rank 1
- Requests a 2.4% increase in clinical fees for Rank 4

The College of Veterinary Medicine (CVM) is requesting a 2.0% increase in the differential fee and a 2.0% increase in the Non-Resident Surcharge for Rank 1 students. The increase is needed to fund anticipated salary/benefit increases, inflationary costs for supplies/services and to help support additional plant operations and maintenance costs associated with space that has been added to support the program and associated university marginal assessments. The college continues to have one of the lowest faculty/student ratios in the U.S. Without the 2.0% increase, the college would need to start evaluating programmatic impacts. Growth in faculty/program will need to come from fundraising or increased State support. The Dean has continued his pledge to keep tuition increases to less than 2.0%, due to the ongoing issues of rising tuition costs and very high debt loads of graduates. The OSU CVM is currently ranked 4th in the latest U.S. News & World Report. While the tuition costs for OSU CVM are average when compared to the Top Ten ranked schools in the country, within the Big Ten, the college has the second highest cost of attendance for resident students.

The college also proposes a 2.4% increase ($9) in the educational support fee (clinic fees) to cover the purchase of dosimeter badges for 4th-year veterinary students. These badges were typically required in radiology clinics. However, a recent accreditation visit instructed the college to mandate that badges be always worn in all areas of the clinic.

The following chart lists the FY 2024 tuition and mandatory fees per semester for all tagged masters and professional programs. Instructional and mandatory fees are paid by both Ohio resident and non-resident students. The non-resident surcharge is paid by students from outside Ohio.

C. Ohio Revised Code Section 3333-1-10 Excluded Programs

Ohio Revised Code section 3333-1-10 (C) 11 provides for exclusions of post-baccalaureate professional programs related to residency for subsidy and tuition surcharge purposes. We are excluding all post-baccalaureate professional programs as permitted under 3333-1-10 (C) 11 including all juris doctorate, medical, dentistry, veterinary, optometry, pharmaceutical doctoral programs, all tagged master's programs, and any other similar post-baccalaureate professional programs. These excluded programs will be posted on our website and will be reported to the Chancellor of the Ohio Department of Higher Education.

II. Housing and Dining

The Office of Student Life continues to implement cost-saving initiatives to keep room and board plans as affordable as possible for students and their families.

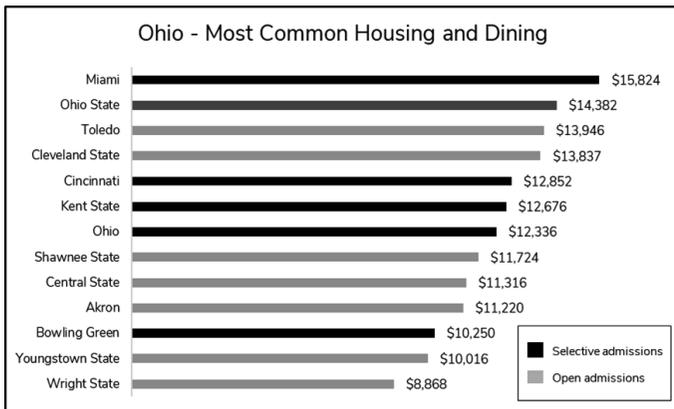

The proposed 3.0% increases for housing and dining rates will apply to new first-year students in 2023-24 and to continuing students who enrolled prior to 2017-18 when the guarantee program was established. The new rates will be frozen for four years for students who are part of the Ohio State Tuition Guarantee.

The following are the proposed rates for the 2023-24 Academic Year, excluding students in the previous Tuition Guarantee cohorts. Housing and dining rates for students who entered the 2019-20, 2020-21, 2021-22 and 2022-23 Tuition Guarantee cohorts will remain at the levels set when those students entered the university.

III. Student Health Insurance

Background: All Ohio State students are required to have health insurance. Domestic students may choose outside insurance, and most do (87%). International students typically buy Ohio State's plan.

The university uses fee revenue to cover the cost of third-party insurance. Rates are designed to be affordable and keep up with healthcare costs.

The recommendation for Academic Year 2023-2024, based on third-party costs, is a 1.73% to 1.76% increase for students.

APPENDIX IV

APPROVAL OF DIGITAL TEXTBOOK FEES

BACKGROUND

Topic:

Fiscal Year 2024 Digital Textbook Pass-through Fees

Context:

The university collects certain fees, known as pass-through fees, that are used to pay a third party for the cost of goods and services that directly benefit students. The university does not seek to financially benefit from these fees but collects them because Ohio State's involvement benefits students by reducing their costs, simplifying billing, or other means.

The university's use of digital textbook pass-through fees has dramatically expanded because of the CarmenBooks affordability initiative, which reduces the cost of course materials, often by 80 percent or more. By using CarmenBooks, the university charges a digital textbook fee that covers the cost of significantly discounted course materials. The Board of Trustees previously approved a pilot in Spring semester 2019 in nine courses and this program has expanded to 347 course offerings in Autumn semester 2023 which is projected to save students more than $3.6 million.

Requested of The Board of Trustees:

Approval of the attached resolution.

APPROVAL OF DIGITAL TEXTBOOK FEES

The CarmenBooks textbook affordability initiative is expected to save students more than $3.6 million during its Autumn semester 2023. The university utilizes its membership in the Unizin consortium to access digital textbooks which will result in more than 53% of savings for students when compared to the cost of traditional textbooks. Students pay a digital textbook fee, which is a pass-through fee that covers the cost of these materials.

The university does not set the rates for pass-through fees, although it can make the cost more affordable as in the case of digital textbooks offered through the CarmenBooks program (by utilizing the Unizin consortium). A list of digital textbook pass-through fees by course is provided below:

in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

Graduates and guests led by Darren K. Templeton

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—O-hi-o!

Commencement Address

Marcia L. Fudge

Ohio State alumna Marcia L. Fudge is a steadfast advocate for the families and communities she has represented throughout her professional career, including in her current position as the 18th secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Secretary Fudge earned her bachelor's degree in business from The Ohio State University and law degree from the Cleveland State University Cleveland-Marshall School of Law. Her career in public service began in the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office, where she rose to the position of director of budget and finance. Secretary Fudge was subsequently elected the first female and first African American mayor of Warrensville Heights, Ohio, where she served for two terms from 2000 to 2008. She was then elected and served as the U.S. Representative for the 11th Congressional District of Ohio until 2021.

Building on her accomplishments as an elected official, which included addressing vacant and abandoned property, protecting against predatory lending, and supporting housing security, Secretary Fudge has ably led the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development since her nomination by President Biden and confirmation by the U.S. Senate in 2021. As secretary, she is focused on eradicating homelessness, ending discriminatory practices in the housing market, and ensuring fair housing rules are effectively applied with the goal of making homeownership — and the security and wealth creation that comes with it — a reality for more Americans.

Following her service in the U.S. House of Representatives, Secretary Fudge donated her official congressional papers to Ohio State as a part of the Ohio Public Policy Archives special collection curated by the Ohio State University Libraries.

Secretary Fudge is a past chair of the Congressional Black Caucus, as well as a past national president of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Recipients of Honors

James S. King

Distinguished Service Award

Over the course of 50 years and several influential positions at The Ohio State University, Professor Emeritus James King founded the Department of Neuroscience, advised deans and mentored faculty as chair of Anatomy and subsequently Neuroscience. He prepared students at all levels for successful careers and contributed greatly to establishing the integrated spinal cord research program for which Ohio State has become internationally recognized.

Dr. King received his bachelor's degree from Taylor University and earned his master's and doctorate degrees from Ohio State. He started his illustrious career at the university first as an anatomy instructor in 1965 and initially retired in 2003 as associate dean for graduate education. His dedication to science and education drew him back to work on special projects and continue sharing his insights and expertise.

As a strong advocate for developing a robust neuroscience program at Ohio State, Dr. King worked as the director of research in the division of Neurological Surgery and ultimately separated neuroscience from other fields of study to establish the Department of Neuroscience. He was also instrumental in the creation of the Neuroscience Graduate Program and directed it for over a decade.

In addition, Dr. King helped develop the Biomedical Sciences Graduate Program and mentored several graduate students and postdoctoral fellows. He received awards from the university for his commitment to students, including an Outstanding Teaching Award, a Basic Science Excellence in Teaching Award and an Alumni Faculty Teaching Award. He advanced scientific research and educational excellence for another 12 years before officially retiring in 2015 after five decades of service.

Dr. King and his wife, Colleen, are both committed to engaging with communities near and far. Dr. King has traveled to Africa and Guatemala on mission trips, and he and his wife have served at the Stowe Mission, an outreach program designed to uplift and improve the lives of people living in south Columbus. Dr. King's work at the university enriched the lives of countless Buckeyes and will continue to do so for generations to come.

Brad A. Myers

Distinguished Service Award

Through five decades as a student, staff member, volunteer and leader at The Ohio State University, Brad A. Myers has enriched the Buckeye community in ways that are both lasting and deeply profound.

After earning his Bachelor of Science and Juris Doctor from Ohio State, Mr. Myers embarked on a 36-year career as a Buckeye that culminated in his serving as the university registrar for nearly 20 years. During this time, he led a number of significant improvements to student services and campus life, including the shift from telephone to online course registration, the implementation of the current student information system, and the conversion from a quarter- to a semester-based academic calendar. He retired in 2016 as the second-longest serving registrar in university history, and he temporarily returned to the role in an interim capacity in 2020.

These experiences and Mr. Myers' compassionate, dedicated leadership elevated Ohio State's reputation and made him a sought-after national expert, including co-authoring and editing several national publications on the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. He served as president of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers as well as its Ohio-based counterpart, and was honored for his distinguished and lifetime contributions to both organizations.

Mr. Myers has long championed Ohio State's students and worked to connect his fellow alumni. He has volunteered his time advising the Sphinx Senior Class Honorary, of which he was a member, and mentored countless students.

He currently chairs the Ohio State Alumni Association's Alumni Advisory Council and is a member of the Scarlet and Gay Alumni Society, the Ohio Staters Alumni Society and the Sphinx Alumni Society, which he helped establish as its inaugural president.

An exemplar of Ohio State's commitment to service and impact, Mr. Myers has received numerous recognitions from the Buckeye community. These include the university's Distinguished Staff Award in 2007, the alumni association's Josephine Failer Award for Outstanding Service to Students in 2003 and his own sandwich — the "Brad Myers Reuben" — at the Ohio Union's Sloopy's Diner in 2013. For many years, his voice was "recognized" as the voice of the university's telephone registration system.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably resulted in the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square — a shape that, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full-cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Education, and Doctor of Nursing Practice gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray

Pomp, circumstance, and other songs of a lifetime

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother

I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
