PUBLIC SESSION
The Wexner Medical Center Board convened for its 47th meeting on Tuesday, August 15, 2023, at Vitria on the Square, 14 E. 15th Avenue, Columbus, OH, 43201, and virtually over Zoom. Board Secretary Jessica A. Eveland called the meeting to order at 12:59 p.m.

Item for Action
1. Approval of Minutes: No changes were requested to the May 16, 2023, meeting minutes; therefore, a formal vote was not required, and the minutes were considered approved.

Items for Discussion
2. Chief Executive Officer’s Report: Dr. John J. Warner, EVP at Ohio State and CEO of the Wexner Medical Center, began with the 2023-24 U.S. News and World Report Best Hospital rankings. The Best Hospital report is created by analyzing data from more than 4,500 eligible hospitals; only the top 50 hospitals in the country are selected for ranking based on outcomes, structure, patient experience, and expert opinion. The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center made the rankings for the 31st consecutive year, once again, leading as the top hospital in Columbus, and No. 2 in the state of Ohio.

In addition, the Ohio State Wexner Medical Center was nationally recognized in the 10 following specialties:

- Cancer (No. 33)
- Cardiology and Heart Surgery (No. 36)
- Diabetes and Endocrinology (No. 20)
- Ear, Nose and Throat (No. 35)
- Gastroenterology and GI Surgery (No. 45)
- Neurology and Neurosurgery (No. 44)
- Obstetrics and Gynecology (No. 37)
- Pulmonology and Lung Surgery (No. 37)
- Rehabilitation (No. 27)
- Urology (No. 24)
Other rankings for the Ohio State Wexner Medical Center include recognition as “high performing” in Geriatrics and Orthopedics – which places these specialties in the top 10% of all rated hospitals; also rated as “high performing” in 15 common procedures and conditions – such as knee replacement, stroke, heart attack care and lung cancer surgery.

The ultimate goal is not just to advance in the rankings. The top priority is – and always will be – putting patients first in everything we do and providing the very best care for everyone, every single time.

Dr. Warner also shared that several residency programs at The Ohio State University College of Medicine and Ohio State Wexner Medical Center were recently recognized by Doximity’s annual Residency Navigator as being among the top competitive accredited programs in the nation by physician reputation. Tools like Doximity Residency Navigator offer insight into training programs and help new physicians decide where to continue their post-graduate learning.

Four Ohio State residency programs earned top 10 recognition this year: Otolaryngology residency program, combined Internal Medicine and Pediatrics residency program in partnership with Nationwide Children’s Hospital, General Surgery residency program, and Child Neurology residency program.

Earning recognition by these tools speaks to the caliber of learning that resident candidates can expect when choosing to continue their training as a Buckeye. Most impressively, our Graduate Medical Education program drew the highest percentage of students ever from U.S. News & World Report top 30 medical research schools.

3. James Cancer Hospital Report: Dr. David Cohn, interim chief executive officer and chief medical officer of The James Cancer Hospital, gave an overview of Pelotonia’s 15th ride weekend and recounted the event of 11,000 participants and more than 6,500 riders. He shared the research impact of fundraising and highlighted the following research studies at Ohio State funded by Pelotonia:

- Breast cancer team studying novel immunotherapy options in combination with standard chemotherapy to improve outcomes for our patients,
- Lymphoma team funded to conduct a first-in-humans study investigating expansion of T cells, another immune population that is a novel approach to harvest the body’s own immune system to fight against cancer,
- Head and neck team and the brain cancer team are both working on molecular gas pedals. Things that accelerate the cancer response and strategies to boost the anti-cancer treatments currently existing,
- Lung cancer team is investigating some adjuncts to talk therapy to address a pressing need in behavioral health. We know the rates of depression, anxiety and suicidality in their patient population is much higher than it ever needs to be.

Dr. Cohn promoted Gravel Day on September 30. It is a road-bike cycling event on unpaved roads and gravel roads, where you see more than 100% more livestock and crops than cars and people with 100% of the funds raised benefiting research funds at The James.

Additionally, Dr. Cohn discussed the James Outpatient Center’s community day and tours, as well as the official opening which occurred on July 17. He detailed some of the efficiencies and services provided at The James Outpatient Care center, including how it allows for significant cancer care in expansion of services — treatment of chronic blood and genitourinary cancers, care for aging cancer patients, expanded infusion diagnostic, interventional radiology, and clinical trial services. In the fall it will open the first and only proton therapy center in central Ohio.

Dr. Cohn concluded with many accomplishments of The James Cancer Hospital and its employees:
The James continues to be ranked among the top cancer hospital in the U.S.;
New growth of cancer program with new leadership — Regina Crawford, director, Sickle Cell Program; Rosa Lapalombella, co-leader, Leukemia Research Program; Susan Tsai, director, Division of Surgical Oncology; Diane Von Ah, OSUCCC co-leader, Cancer Control Program;
The James nursing accomplishment of Magnet Status for the third consecutive cycle with nine exemplars;
BMT program earned third Beacon Award for Excellence.
